Can't Wait to See You: Events

~ July 16-18, I'm headed to Haven Conference!

~ Email to request a presentation closer to you. ~

Not Feeling It

Dear Friends, I'm having a bit of a down day, but I promised I'd get this newsletter out before the end of the month.

Just keeping it real.

You don't have to be perfectly (or even imperfectly) organized all the time. You don't have to have up days all the time. You don't have to be perky all the time.

But even on a down day, we can still get just one thing done. We can still move the ball forward just a little bit. We can still use our nice words to each other. We can still say a prayer of thanksgiving for something.

Three things to do on a down day...

1. Ask for help. My computer expert is in my office as I write this, because I just can not fight with my computer again today.
2. Revisit pictures and find something that brings a smile. This picture above is a rainbow and a flying unicorn that my little one made me on a LiteBrite. You can totally borrow my rainbow if you need one today or some day soon.
3. Take time off. Shut down. Walk away. Go shopping. Find a good book. Sit in the sun. In this age of "always on," you have my permission to be off for a little bit.

I hope that you take some inspiration from us here at HeartWork Organizing today. See you next month!
