Ghost Writing

August is kind of a ghost month where I live. Many families spend down time at the shore or the mountains, and many small businesses take a break before coming back after Labor Day. Let's keep this short, so you can get back to enjoying your summer.

Before: Watch to see this zoo transformed!

A big congratulations to Denise Mooney, who won a whole new set of bedroom furniture for her girls from the folks at SmartStuff Furniture. Two other winners will also get a free personalized space plan. The SmartStuff furniture is high-quality and safety-focused. You'll be impressed with the styles and quality. This is the same high-quality furniture used in my daughter's Paris-inspired bedroom makeover. I can't wait to show you how we can help these sisters transition into an updated, shared space.

Our 2016 Summer Declutter 10-Week Organizing Challenge will conclude this month. Click here to see the list of projects scheduled, even if you only join in for one or two projects. Many group members are finding the support, structure and encouragement to get a few organizing projects off their list. Let's see your organizing wins!
