Green & Clean

Did you forget your green today? Quick, grab a green Post-It note. While you're at it, maybe start spring cleaning your office. I don't think I've ever had a spring cleaning issue. Do you think it's time?

Thursday evening 3/17 I'll present a decluttering presentation in Richboro, and you are invited. That's always a good place to start. You really can't clean with tons of clutter on top.

Once you've cleaned, then you can decorate. That's the fun part for most people. I hope you caught the reveal of my daughter's room makeover.

Talk about decluttering, the Just Between Friends children's consignment sale is a great way to sell your stuff and get great "new to you" kid's items for less. It's now through Sunday, 3/20, my fave, half price day.

While you are in the spring cleaning mood, don't forget your photographs. I went through mine after the Association of Personal Photo Organizer's conference in LA, and I can't wait to show you what I found.

Still in the spring cleaning mood? Join me next Monday night, 3/21, for a special webinar at 8 PM called Green & Clean: A Professional Organizer's Clean Home Secrets. You can register for this live webinar here for just $21. That's about what you'd pay for a bottle of fancy cleaning solution.
