Daily Holiday Organizing Tips

Halloween candy eaten? Check!
Clocks changed? Check!
Dark at 5 pm? Check!

It must be the holidays!

I've already stashed a few presents, made some special photo gifts, and helped some clients find their Christmas decorations.

If you are wondering how you'll fit it all in, take a breath. We've got a new email feature just for you. Starting just after Thanksgiving, we'll email quick, two-sentence organizing tips for real people. Click here to sign up for Daily Holiday Organizing Tips delivered to email.

Spoiler alert, one tip is to DIY something beautiful as a gift. Not only are custom made gifts very meaningful for the gift recipient (and less likely to become clutter), DIY'ing something can be a way to reduce your stress during a very busy season. We provide the support and all the supplies. We'll be making the beautiful marble trays pictured here. You can style them for use around your home. Register now for Habitat for Humanity on Wednesday, November 29, starting at 6 pm. Once you learn how, you might make this beautiful DIY for many people on your list this year.

Have fun decorating, and click now to schedule your organizing appointment to put holiday decorations away and start your 2017 photo yearbook project.
