Dear Darla

I hope you'll take a moment to register for the 20/20 Virtual Organizing Class starting next Thursday, a week from today. There's been an amazing response to this class, which only costs $20.

I hate to lead with price here, because there is so much value in this class. But if that's what it takes to get you moving in the right direction, please take advantage of this super reasonable price. This is the last organizing class for the year, and this introductory price will not be repeated.

For $20 you get all of this:

- An organizing class that meets all of YOUR needs,
- focuses on YOUR project,
- gets you ready for the holidays,
- doesn't require you to travel,
- meets when it's convenient for YOU (through the magic of recording),
- makes heavy use of your favorite toy (social media),
- is super-duper affordable,
- and finishes just as the holiday craziness starts.

Don't miss this 20/20 Virtual Organizing Class! Please register today and share with those you love.

I HATE THAT I HAVE TO GIVE THIS SPACE HERE, but... Facebook has changed things, again. If you look forward to

It Pays to Stay Connected

Congrats to Barbara, Estelle, Amanda, and Sean. They all received a beautiful, free hard-bound formatted photo book just for being connected to HeartWork Organizing on Facebook. This was not a contest, but a gift for everyone who responded.

The book and formatting was worth over $70.

They showcased photos about birthdays, weddings, babies, and a day at the racetrack.

I can help you turn those digital and paper photos into great gifts for the holidays and safeguard them for the long term. Call me now at 856-905-3202.

getting my feeds from www.Facebook.com/HeartWorkOrganizing, you need to do something to keep getting my posts sent to you (so you'll learn about cool stuff and free offers like the one on the left that people jumped on). Open my page, Hover over the "LIKE" button, and select "Add to the Interests Lists". It's pretty painless. Thanks.

If you are already as organized as you want to be and you're all hooked up on FB, then you're ready to enjoy some of my favorite images from the past few weeks below.

Sincerely,

Darla DeMorrow, CPO® , owner

If you don't change anything else this season, be sure to change your smoke detector batteries this month. My family watched a mock house burn at our town's fire safety demonstration, which is something that none of us wants to see for real.

Turn over a new leaf inside your home.
