Getting It Together: February 2013

Dear Darla, ,

Warm and cozy. February is a month for hearts and roses, cuddly groundhogs, the Super Bowl, and dreaming of spring training and spring home projects. It's also the month to start on your taxes and, in our house at least, to celebrate lots of birthdays. How can such a short month have so much packed into it?

I can't do much about the Super Bowl, but I've got you covered on the other stuff. The Philly Home Show going on this week, and I can mail you tickets so you'll have them in time to attend this weekend, just email me to let me know how many you need. (Kids under 6 get in free.)

Paper organizing classes start in March, register now. If registration doesn't fill before March 1, the class will flip to a Virtual Organizing Class, so make your preferences known.

I've got some great programs lined up for you this year. In this short month that I could, frankly, do without, I'm glad to keep busy and connected with you!

Fondly,
Darla DeMorrow

Do you need a little getaway?

Even if you pay 100% of your mortgage each month, you might not be using 100% of your home. Here's the scoop on another one-day room transformation, that totally makesover a very small, wasted and forgotten hallway. Read the full article, with before and after pictures

Home Show Happy

I'm so honored to be chosen to present Fabulous One Day Room Transformations at the Philadelphia Home Show on February 9 (Saturday) at 2 pm. The middle of winter is a great time to see what's new in home trends. It's great to get inspiration and motivation to tackle your own fun and fabulous projects.

And I'll be giving away this luxurious, easy-to-install $60 Waterpik Medallion Shower Head.

Many of my colleagues will be speaking throughout the show, and Saturday's Xfinity Stage lineup is particularly great, with the Philly Phanatic and other stars on throughout the day. I'm thrilled to be able to offer tickets just for the asking (first come, first served). You can also score discounted or free parking by visiting the Philly Home Show site. I hope you'll come up and say hi next Saturday.

Stay warm. Get cozy. Click or call to get in touch with your organizing or decorating needs. See you soon.

Sincerely,

Darla DeMorrow
