Restart: Early September 2013

Dear Darla,

Are you as excited as I am? You might have seen that my Clutter Support Group is starting again on October 1. If you've ever wondered about the clutter support group, now is the time to sign up. Registration will close on September 17, in less than 2 weeks.

This is absolutely the most affordable organizing services you'll receive all year!

Here's how it works. Register today. You pick a big hairy organizing project you never thought you could do. (Closet? Office? Basement? Baby book? Resume?) We meet together every Tuesday night in October. You get the tools and support you need to power through during the week. On the last night, when you share your finished project, we do the happy dance together. (Happy dance optional.)

I even include a one-hour power-consultation in your home during the class.

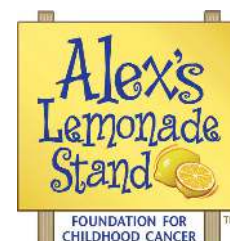

You don't want to miss it...it's the last scheduled group organizing class this year. If you can't make one of the four classes, no problem. We can catch you up!

I keep these classes small, fewer than 12 people, so we can meet your needs.

Just think...you can get organized for about what your daily coffee costs. Sail into the holidays with a new attitude, and a clutter-free space.

Alex's Lemonade Stand

I've signed up with other area bloggers for the Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation Million Mile Run. I only have to run/walk 100 miles in September and raise $1,000. Will you sponsor my miles or donate to raise money for pediatric cancer research? Just click here to donate. You can click on on my name where it says "Select a team member". Thanks!

Registration for the Clutter Support Group closes September 17, so register today.

Fondly,
Darla DeMorrow

Ready for a RESET?

My colleague Holly Amato is offering a free (no strings attached) organizing telesummit this month. Use this link to listen to a motivating organizing class nearly every day in September. I'm honored to kick off the series on 9/9, with "Re-imagine Your Life Organized," so please click over to sign up for FREE!

Summer is over and the holiday season is hot on our heels....

Kids are back to school, but is this new school year already stressing you out?

MOUNDS of paper everywhere?
