Being Done

Do you know that happy feeling of being done, having a project completed, being able to stand back and say, "Look, isn't it pretty?"

We help people have that feeling when it comes to their photos and family memories.

Truth: family photo management is often bigger than a 1-person job.

If you are very, very lucky, you might have a relative or a kiddo who likes to help with storing, editing, and displaying your family memories, but even they get help when they take classes or have products made.

If you are looking to get your photos organized this summer, there's still time to click and register for our Photo Organizing classes June 3 (digital) and June 10 (physical photos). You'll get tools to DIY it, or a road map on how we can help you say, "YAY! My photo project has arrived!"

It won't just be done. It will be beautiful and something you'll be proud to share. And we love for you to take all the credit for being done.

This is a lay-flat spread from a premium 12x12" book of over 300 photos from the 1990's that were scanned, enhanced, designed and printed on 100-year paper. The client agrees that this book is stunning in person.

Sign up for the Photo Organizing: All Things Digital class today. One of our partners, Once Upon A Time Creation is giving us a $40 gift certificate door prize towards one of their hand-made creations from your textile keepsakes. Please check them out.
