Peace and Pie

Our mission is to help you find peace and purpose. It is such an honor every time we help someone -or an entire family- live better lives. Everything we do is to help you enjoy more peace.

I'm excited to be asked to speak at this year's Eat Write Retreat. I'll be helping writers finesse their plans into small business success and profits. I'll be sharing strategies from my book that will enrich their whole family and improve their long term financial stability. If eating well, creating important relationships, and writing for a living is in your future, register now for this highly anticipated event. Hopefully there will be pie.

Looking to start your summer off with a fun little project? Our Photo Organizing classes are June 3 (digital) and June 10 (physical photos). Registration now to claim your seat. You'll have tools you need to get through your summer organizing.

We've been busy mailing out packages for recent winners. We still have giveaways going on for shiny things and a better way to paint. I love sharing cool tools with you. Please hop over to my Facebook page to ask questions or tip me off to your own fab finds!

Wrapping up with a happy shout out to my new assistant Tori. She's a delight to work with, and will help me find more peace, too! I know you will welcome her on our hands-on projects. Think our team has the dream job?? We do. Apply here.
