Always Learning

Isn't it a blessing to be able to learn something new at the click of a button? It's so easy to pick up a new skill on almost anything.

I'm brushing up on my French using the DuoLingo app.

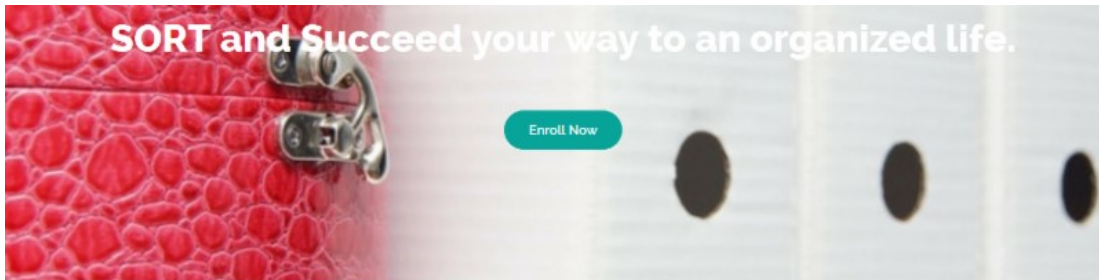

My kids like the Brains On science podcast. (Please don't tell them they are learning in the summer!)

I'll see you at the Radnor Memorial Library this Wednesday night for an organizing seminar on summer projects.

And now you have even more ways to learn from me wherever you are in the world, with our online courses available here. One of them is free!

What would you like to learn? I'll bet you can get started today!
